FALL SERIES: Family Matters

Our general habit here at FBC is to preach through books of the Bible; sequential reading forces us to see the big picture and think about things our minds naturally turn away from. But there is also value in taking a break from that in order to look at what the Bible says as a whole about a few issues of particular concern. And that's what we are working through with this series called "Family Matters." We're going to look at marriage, parenting, loss, childlessness and singleness. We're going to talk about how to love your spouse and your kids without making an idol of your spouse and your kids. We're going to talk about aging, caring for the sick, learning from the old and dying with dignity. Join us this fall on Sundays at 9:30am.

THE WORD IN YOU: OCTOBER MEMORY VERSE - PSALM 103:1-2

Psalms 103:1-2 says, "Bless the LORD, O my soul, and all that is within me, bless his holy name! Bless the LORD, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits." These verses recount Israel's history and reflect on God's goodness. The Psalmist is remembering, and as he does, he stirs up his soul to praise God with his whole heart. When was the last time you reflected on your life and the graciousness God has shown you? A life of worship and praise does not come out of a vacuum, but from reflecting on who God is and what He has done. Ask God to bring to your mind His goodness in your life as you memorize this verse.
