NEW FALL SERIES: Family Matters

Our general habit here at RCC is to preach through books of the Bible; sequential reading of the Bible forces us to see the big picture and think about some things our minds naturally turn away from. But there is also value in taking a break from that in order to look at what the Bible says as a whole about a few issues of particular concern. And that's what we are going to work through with this series called "Family Matters". We're going to look at marriage, parenting, loss, childlessness and singleness. We're going to talk about how to love your spouse and your kids without making an idol of your spouse and your kids. We're going to talk about aging, caring for the sick, learning from the old and dying with dignity. We're going to cover the whole range of family experience; join us this fall on Sundays at 11:30am.

THE WORD IN YOU: SEPTEMBER MEMORY VERSE - PSALM 56:3-4

"When I am afraid, I put my trust in you. In God, whose word I praise, in God I trust; I shall not be afraid. What can flesh do to me?" Dr. Martyn Lloyd Jones wrote in his book Spiritual Depression It's Causes and Cure: "Have you realized that most of your unhappiness in life is due to the fact that you are listening to yourself instead of talking to yourself?" In times of distress and anxiety, when your head is bustling with fears and stresses, stop listening and start speaking Psalm 56:3-4. Ask God to press this into your heart.
